CASTLE & ESTATE

Castle & Estate Dog Policy.

Woof Woof!

We are delighted to welcome you to join your owners during their stay at Pentillie. Make sure that they take you to the Mausoleum and the River at least twice a day... There are some good smells for you to rootle out, and some brilliant walks.

Khan and Tamu are looking forward to meeting you. They are very friendly and know all the walks, so do look out for them, and we hope that you enjoy playing with them. If you aren't so keen on them, please let us know and we'll keep them with us in the office instead.

In order to respect our human visitors we do make the following requests:-

- Please don't go into the public areas, apart from the games room, but down here you will find comfortable sofas, television and table football.
- After your walks, please ask your owners to wash you off in the courtyard – there is both hot and cold water, so you should have a lovely shower. There are blue towels to dry you off in the boot-room.
- We know you don't like being left alone, so will ask your owners not to leave you in the room for any longer than two hours at a time. If you are left alone, please don't bark or chew the furniture. Unfortunately we will have to charge for any damage caused – so don't do it, or you might not be allowed to come on holiday again!
- You might notice that we have popped a lovely dog bed, feeding mat and treat in your owner's room for you. Please use these and not the bed or armchairs to relax.
- Please scamper into the bushes to do your business. Otherwise, we ask that your owner's kindly scoop and bin your doggy do's. No pooping in the pathways, or on the lawn!
- Please don't whine about being kept on the lead, particularly in the castle, or near the pheasants. If you are not a pheasant chaser then you are welcome to be let off the lead once you are in the gardens, provided that you come back when your owners call you.
- Do introduce yourself to our team - we all love dogs. However, please be aware that some of your owner's fellow guests may not be so keen, so we ask that you wait for an invitation before you bounce onto their laps.

Dear Guests
